Subject : Academic Advisors for UNESCO and Tanoto Student Research Awards

Jakarta, 2 May 2024

The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) and Tanoto Foundation share a common vision for meaningful youth engagement in development. Through the UNESCO and Tanoto Student Research Awards, UNESCO and Tanoto Foundation aim to harness the potential of youth by providing them with capacity building opportunities.

This programme provides university students with the opportunity to undertake a social research project, supported by online training sessions and mentorship opportunities. As such, UNESCO and Tanoto Foundation are seeking suitably qualified Academic Advisors to provide consultation on youth research projects. Academic Advisors will meet fortnightly with two groups of participants from their university from the period of June until August 2024. Advisors will also be invited to attend the Knowledge Summit in Jakarta in August 2024, where students will present their research findings to policymakers at a research exhibition.

UNESCO and Tanoto Foundation are seeking applications from candidates who meet the following criteria:

- Currently employed as an early-mid career lecturer, researcher or academic at Universitas Gadjah Mada.
- Ability to confidently communicate in English both written and verbal.
- Experience or interest in climate, technology, education and/or mental health research.
- Ability to commit to fortnightly one-hour consultations with two research groups (weekly one hour commitment for a 12-week period).
- Ability to attend the Knowledge Summit, scheduled for the last week of August 2024.

To apply, please complete this online form. Applicants are required to upload a copy of their resume in English. Applications will close on Tuesday, 21st May 2024 at 23:59 (WIB). Successful candidates will be notified via email. If you have any questions, please contact Grace Hull (g.hull@unesco.org).

Thank you for your kind attention, we look forward to receiving your application.

Yours Sincerely,

Undral Ganbaatar (Ms.)

Jakarta, 6 May 2024

The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) and Tanoto Foundation share a common vision for meaningful youth engagement in development. Through the UNESCO and Tanoto Student Research Awards, UNESCO and Tanoto Foundation aim to harness the potential of youth by providing them with capacity building opportunities.

This programme provides university students with the opportunity to undertake a social research project that offers solutions to current socioeconomic challenges within their communities, supported by online training sessions and mentorship opportunities. Participants will also present their research to high-level policymakers at the Knowledge Summit in August 2024. As such, UNESCO and Tanoto Foundation are inviting suitably qualified students to apply to participate in the programme.

UNESCO and Tanoto Foundation are seeking applications from participants who meet the following criteria:

- Currently enrolled as an undergraduate second- or third-year university student at Universitas Gadjah Mada.
- Ability to confidently communicate in English both written and verbal.
- Leadership experience within their community.
- Strong interest in addressing socioeconomic challenges.
- Prior experience in social research and involvement in youth-focused organizations is desirable.

Applications can be submitted by completing this online form. Applications will close on Tuesday, 21st May 2024 at 23:59 (WIB). Shortlisted candidates will be verified by their university to confirm enrolment. If you have any questions, please contact Grace Hull (g.hull@unesco.org).

Thank you for your kind attention, we look forward to receiving participant applications.
